Signature Works Boom's Day LXIV (six.four)

LXIV (SIX.FOUR)

LXIV (six.four)

By KC Bevis, Phillip Wood, and James Morrow in collaboration with the Ensemble.

LXIV (six.four) is a genre-bending Hip Hop theater work inspired by the legendary 1851 Immortal Chess Game. Blending freestyle and choreography, audiences follow the journey of Pawn Roman — the Underestimated. Part battle tactics, part storytelling, Act I introduces the Players and transforms the chessboard into a human landscape, revealing how we are born into uneven power, enter systems already in motion, and make choices that carry lasting consequences.

BOOM'S DAY

It's Booms Day

By Jessica Deahr, KC Bevis, Annie Franklin, James Gregg and Jimmy Weeden.

After a vague and expansive “boom” takes the fun out of everything, our eight-year-old narrator, whose memory and grasp of her surroundings are questionable, keeps it simple in the apocalypse by keeping her distance—no partners, no playmates, just her and her boombox. When events join her with one person, then another (and another), she has to make choices: friends or family, love or blood, peace or freedom. Add a greedy gang of marauders and a distant city beyond the wastelands, and the result is a story combining comedy and suspense with a ton of stylistic, high-energy movement.

"As always it was great seeing Crash tear the stage apart. The work was exhilarating and powerful. They conveyed and sense of daring mixed with fun that brought the audience to their feet."

Michael Uthoff - Artistic Director, Dance St. Louis

"Without cheap theatrics, they brought humor and strength with simple props, meaningful audio and strong projected images. We can't wait to see what they'll do next! They never disappoint audiences with their easy versatility, creative directing, aesthetic beauty and though-provoking content."

Lana Rogachevskaya - Executive Director, Governors State Center for the Performing Arts

"Students and faculty alike had nothing but glowing feedback on the studio work. Jessica is a gifted artist, and a gifted teacher, and is a lovely, approachable human being on top of all that! When Peter and I started Xfest, one of our goals was to showcase work that was experimental/alternative, but also accessible and moving to lay audiences. Dance Crash exemplifies this in the best way. I sincerely hope that we will be able work together again."

Chuck Harper - Artistic Director, SIUe Xfest

"Dance Crash put on a wonderful show for our students and our community. The dancers were amazing - virtuosic, high energy, each with their particular style and personality. And the fusion of dance styles in the work made for a varied, continuously surprising evening. They had our usually quite reserved students shouting and cheering by the end of the show. Thank you Chicago Dance Crash, you guys are awesome!"

Kaela Lee - Director of Dance, College of the Holy Cross

"Chicago Dance Crash's residency at Salem State University was a wonderful experience to have on campus! The company members taught a variety of challenging workshops that pushed our students' talents. The SSU students overwhelming loved the company, commenting that they were amazing, but each member was friendly and encouraging. This residency was extremely positive, and our students were inspired for weeks afterwards. I think many of them want to move to Chicago!"

Meghan McLyman - Dance Program Coordinator, Salem State University

"We have never presented a dance group here, so we did not know how our audience would respond to the program. I have to say, having Dance Crash here has been the highlight of our season. The entire ensemble was accommodating to our facility and fun to work with. The audience was engaged the entire time. I was surprised by the large number of young people who attended the performance - I think they have started a fan club here. We will be bringing CDC back for a residency! What a great introduction to dance for my audience. Thank you!"

Sandra Madden - Executive Director, Campanile Center for the Performing Arts
